

The Agenda

Artist exhibition

JCC MetroWest presents "Mother," an exhibition by Monica Litvany, in the Gaelen Gallery East at the Leon and Toby Cooperman JCC, West Orange, through July 31.

"Mother" combines large-scale/figurative sculpture with surfaced sculptural vessels. Reliquary for Love Tokens has an extremely detailed surface with subtle color variations and stands over six feet tall. Litvany's mastery of alternative firing techniques is evident in her work, from small narrative pieces to large wall installations.

The exhibition can be previewed at www.monicalitvany.com/prview/index.html.

Gaelen Gallery East hours are Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m.-6 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m.-6 p.m.; and Sunday, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. For more information, contact Lisa Suss at 973-530-3413 or lsuss@jccmetrowest.org.

1/2 PRICE

To help our neighbors fulfill an important family responsibility, Beth Israel Cemetery is offering, for a limited time, two pre-need burial spaces at one-half the price, in a selected garden.

Perhaps you have not given the matter of burial much thought. The problem does not automatically solve itself when the time comes. Lack of forethought often places an unpleasant task on our loved ones. If we knew the difficulties that arise when pre-need arrangements have not been made, we would without hesitation fulfill these responsibilities.

By taking advantage of our special offer now, your modest investment will avoid much emotional and financial hardship later on for your loved ones.
